

The Mildmay Club Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct applies to all members, guests and Committee members of the Mildmay Club and aims to promote a peaceful and sociable environment.

As a Club member, guest or Committee member, you agree to:

1. Follow the Club's governing rules.
2. Show respect and value diversity: treat everyone fairly, embracing our differences.
3. Use considerate language: avoid words that may offend or alienate others.
4. Reject harassment or bullying: maintain a safe space free from abusive behaviour.
5. Protect the Club's reputation: do not damage the image of the Club or the CIU whilst on the premises, or on social media.
6. Communicate tactfully: Share opinions constructively and without hostility.
7. Prioritise safety: Ensure a healthy and safe environment for all.

Breaking these standards can lead to investigation by the Committee under 'Club Rule 13: misconduct of members' and could result in suspension or possible loss of Club membership.
